An act to require prisoners to pay for their meals

Be it enacted by the Youth Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky

Section 1: To require all inmates in prisons in the Commonwealth of Kentucky to pay for their meals either by working or by using their own money.

Section 2: This bill is needed in Kentucky because prisoner's meals are payed for by our tax money.

Section 3: This bill will be enforced by the Human Rights Commission (HRC)

Section 4: An inmate will pay for the meals themselves using any bank accounts or money they have at the time of their money imprisonment

Section 5: If the inmate has insufficient funds, then his or her friends and family will be able to donate money to help pay for the prisoner's meals.

Section 6: If there is no money given and they do not have enough money themselves, then the inmate will have to work for their meals by doing various jobs around the prison such as cleaning up trash and working during meals.

Section 7: If they cannot work and cannot pay for their meals, then a bill will add up over their time in the prison, then they will have to pay it off when they are released.

Section 8: The money used for the meals will be a virtual currency that will be tracked instead of actual money.

Section 9: One hour of work will be worth the price of one meal, which will be two dollars (2.00)

Section 10: All laws or parts of laws that are in conflict with this bill are hereby repealed.

Section 11: This bill will go into effect six (6) months after passage and the signature of the governor of Kentucky.
